At 2:15 p.m. Chairman Becker announced the scheduled public hearing on Local Law No. 4 of 2021 – A Local Law Allowing Madison County to Opt Out of the DEC Regulation for the Late Season Holiday Hunting.

Supervisor Nirelli made the motion to open the hearing, seconded by Supervisor Walrod and carried.

Chairman Becker then called for speakers:

- 1. Michael Reeder addressed the Board saying that they should be advantage of more time for hunting and the harvesting of deer in Madison County. Give residents the option of more time to fill up their freezers
- 2. Jackie Cummings – Canastota, New York who is an avid hunter asked the Board NOT to opt out of the opportunity for a longer hunting season.
- 3. Deb Hotaling – Hubbardsville, New York sent in her written comments stating that she supports for opting out of the DEC regulation on late season holiday hunting. She owns property in Nelson and Hamilton. Both properties are used for hunting and both are part of the NYS Snowmobile trail system and this will cause a lot of confusion. The DEC may have good intentions for extending hunting but overlooked other factors such as snowmobile season with three clubs using the trail system in this area.
- 4. Supervisor Walrod stated that he supports the local snowmobile clubs, and that this law is not intended to be used for a tool to manage deer.

There being no further speakers, Supervisor Zupan made the motion to close the hearing, seconded by Supervisor Moses and carried.

The Board then continued with regular Board business.
